Supports David Needs To Stay Happy, Healthy & Safe

Reminders from co-workers through conversations that they are dealing with the same negative stuff when it happens. Needs reassurance that he's not the only one.

Needs to be reminded where Holidays fall, because he has started working on Thanksgiving, and couldn't figure out why no one would answer their phones.

Needs Honest, logical people around him on projects who like joking, so the job can get done! Give me a clear directive.

Others need to understand that David sees the big and small picture by way of how he sees life. But, he may, at times, need pulled back from focusing on 1 thing...like a single bass line. There's an entire song out there!
